

Greece. Portugal.
The EU Itself.
Is Italy Next?

Bringing the European Financial Crisis into Focus.

Join us on June 23.

The Italian American Alliance for Business and Technology, Under the auspices of the Consul of Italy in Detroit, Marco Nobili

Cordially invites you to join us for a special presentation by

Adolfo Laurenti, Deputy Chief Economist, Mesirow Financial, Chicago

From the Sub-prime Crisis in the USA to the Debt Crisis in Greece.

Crises with Global Implications.

Growing Wariness Among Investors, the Future of the Euro-zone, and Implications for the USA.

Wednesday, June 23, 2010

5:30 until 8:30 pm

The Townsend Hotel

100 Townsend Street

Downtown Birmingham MI

Members $60

Non-Members $70

Secure online registration, via PayPal, at www.iaabt.org

Milan native Adolfo Laurenti, deputy chief economist, works alongside the firm's Chief Economist Diane Swonk to develop ongoing economic research, commentary and insight into the global market. In addition, he is the author of Themes on the Global Markets, providing insight into trends, issues and the forecast for the global economy. Adolfo is a frequent lecturer at Northwestern University, and his insight can be found in financial publications across the world.

Following the presentation by Mr. Laurenti, join us for a Wine Reception, Strolling Dinner and exchanging ideas with our members and friends

Business Attire ♦ Info: 248.227.6143 ♦ RSVP by June 21

Italian American Alliance
For Business and Technology